

Name: _____

Date: _____

Parli Pro Fun

Across

4. Number of gavel taps to stand up.
 7. Officer who reads the roll of the membership
 9. A short break in the proceedings of a meeting.
 10. Less than half; opposite of majority.
 12. More than a half; group that controls the most votes.
 14. Official gathering of the members to transact official business.
 16. Includes what will be discussed at a meeting.

17. Number of gavel taps to be seated.

18. The minimum number of persons entitled to vote that must be present at a properly called meeting.

19. To change a motion

20. To present a new idea or item of business.

Down

1. A person with unrestricted rights of participation in meetings.

2. The presiding officer, or the station of the presiding officer.

3. A concise and official record of the proceedings of a meeting.

5. Formal discussion of the pros and cons of motions.

6. A consultant who advises on matters of parliamentary procedure.

8. To accept or agree to.

11. An acknowledgement by a second member that a motion should come before the assembly.

13. To close a meeting.

15. Small mallet that represents the authority of the presiding officer.